place and date time and duration Travel expenses will be reimbursed on verification. Please enclose copies of the bills to do so. The university is obligated to report these payments to the tax office in accordance with the transaction reporting regulations (§ 93a Revenue Code). Conditions (1) The guest lecturer gives the guest lecture on his/her own authority. At the same time, he/she must consider the university's interests. The guest lecturer is not bound by any instructions or directions given by the university. He/she must, however, comply with the university's directions to the extent required for the proper execution of this agreement. (2) The guest lecturer is himself/herself responsible for his/her obligations arising from tax and social security regulations. The university is obligated to inform the responsible tax office about the payments in accordance with § 93a Revenue Code. (3) Reimbursements of travel expenses for guest lectures are remunerations and as such subject to VAT. A tax exemption is only possible if the lecture classifies as a tax-exempt teaching service. (4) The guest lecturer is not entitled to reimbursement if he/she cannot deliver the agreed service under this agreement, e.g. due to illness etc. (5) This agreement and any claims arising from it are subject exclusively to German law.
