FUNDING OF STUDY AND RESEARCH VISITS FOR STUDENTS AND DOCTORAL CANDIDATES OF HEIDELBERG UNIVERSITY AT 4EU+ PARTNER UNIVERSITIES

Heidelberg University is a member of the 4EU+ Alliance, consisting of Charles University in Prague, Heidelberg University, Sorbonne University in Paris, the University of Warsaw, the University of Copenhagen and the University of Milan. 4EU+ aims to create a new quality of cooperation between the six universities in manifold areas. The goal is the creation of a 'European University' with compatible courses of study, flexible study paths for students and manifold mobility options for students and academic staff (www.uni-heidelberg.de/en/4eu-european-university-alliance).

The German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) provides financial support for short-term study visits at a 4EU+ partner in the framework of his supporting programme 'European University Networks'. Eligible to apply are students and doctoral candidates of Heidelberg University.

The following activities can be funded:

- Study visits between 1 to 2 months (Programme A)
- Short-term visits up to 30 days (Programme B) at 4EU+ partner universities for study and research activities (e.g. participation in regular study programmes or research projects, intensive courses such as block seminars, sommer schools, internships, visits for own research projects, preparation of final thesis etc.).

| Programme | Duration | Extend of funding |
