

Baden-
Württemberg
Stiftung
WIR STIFTEN ZUKUNFT

For Heidelberg students and graduates*

In order to promote international exchange, the Baden-Württemberg Foundation is awarding scholarships for stays abroad in the academic year 2022/23 to highly qualified students and graduates. As the Baden-Württemberg Foundation has specified that the exchanges must be on a reciprocal basis, this announcement is primarily intended for participants of exchange programmes (except those under the ERASMUS scheme).

Scholarship amount: 600 € a month for students
800 € a month for PhD students
In justified cases the scholarship may be increased

The scholarship may not be combined with other scholarships intended for the support of a stay abroad (e.g. DAAD). The Baden-Württemberg scholarship counts as income and will lead to a deduction of 300 € a month from the Bafög.

Duration of support: At least three and no more than ten months. Plus, if applicable, one month for a language course.

Subjects: All

Application deadline: 31 March 2022

Application documents:

- Formatted CV
- Letter of motivation
- Application form www.uni-heidelberg.de/de/studium/studium-international/studium-imausland/finanzierung/stipendienprogramme
- Proof of matriculation/Acceptance as PhD candidate
- Transcript of records
- Certificates (including Abitur)
- Language certificate
- Reference from a professor
- Confirmation of nomination for the exchange and, if applicable, proof of exemption from tuition fees

Application address: Dezernat Internationale Beziehungen
Universität Heidelberg
Seminarstraße 2
69117 Heidelberg

For further information please contact the International Relations Office in InfoCenter (Room 119), by phone, email or video call appointment at <https://www.uniheidelberg.de/de/studium/service-beratung/infozimmer-studium-im-ausland>.
Contact hours: Mon 10-3pm, Tue 10-2pm, Wed and Thurs 10-4pm, Fri 10-1pm

 This announcement is subject to the allocation of funds from the Baden-Württemberg Foundation.*