

Visa or Residence Permit

No visa / residence permit required, just a valid passport or ID card:

EU students: Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, Croatia, Cyprus, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Greece, Hungary, Ireland, Italy, Latvia, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malta, Netherlands, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden.

Students from EEA countries: Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway.

All international students from outside the EU and the EEA generally need a visa or a residence permit with supplementary sheet in order to study at Heidelberg University.

Students with a refugee background / students in the possession of one of the following permits – §23, §24, §25 or §60a AufenthG or §55 AsylVfG – are strongly recommended to contact Student Advisory Service of the university's International Relations Office / Ms. Buchholz before enrolling:

When do you have to apply for a visa and/or a residence permit?

- a) Students from Andorra, Australia, Brazil, Canada, El Salvador, Honduras, Israel, Japan, Monaco, New Zealand, San Marino, South Korea, Switzerland United Kingdom and the United States may enter Germany without a visa, but you have to apply for a residence permit at the local Foreigners' Registration Office (Ausländerbehörde) within three months.
- b) Students from all other countries must obtain a visa (for study purposes) before departing for Germany. The application for a visa for study purposes must be made at the German Embassy/Consulate in the student's home country. After arrival, students have to apply for an extension of their stay in form of a residence permit at the Foreigners' Registration Office. Please submit the application 8 weeks before the visa expires.

Entry into Germany is only permitted, if you have a valid residence status. You do not have to present your visa/ residence status when enrolling. However, after your enrollment you should clarify your legal situation with the local Foreigners Registration office by handing in a certificate of enrollment.

The following visas cannot be extended or changed into a study visa by the local Foreigners' registration office in Germany: Tourist visa, visa according to the Schengen Agreement, business visa. This means that students must return to their home country and apply for another visa.

The International Relations Office of Heidelberg University will be happy to inform you about the rules and regulations. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Ms Kumler, e-mail: andrea.kumler@zuv.uni-heidelberg.de; phone: 0049-6221 54 12 703.

Important note: First you must report your address to the registration office/citizen centre (Einwohnermeldeamt/Bürgeramt) in your city of residence. Only then is it possible to apply for an extension of your visa.

Please note: If you have not yet found a permanent room at the time of application for your residence permit, please refer to the Foreigners' Registration Office (Ausländerbehörde) in charge of the area where you currently reside.

Where can you apply for the residence permit?

Issues pertaining the entrance and residency in Germany are handled by the Foreigners' Registration Office (Ausländerbehörde). The current address at the time of your residence registration determines which office you'll have to contact. Please contact your foreigner's authority (list below) 6 weeks before your visa / residence title expires.

Please note: There are two Foreigners' Registration offices in Heidelberg. One is responsible for the citizens living in the city / municipality of Heidelberg, the other for citizens living in the municipalities of the Rhein-Neckar-Kreis.

Which documents do you need to prepare?

When you apply for a residence/study permit or extension, you must bring the following documents:

- Application form for a residence permit
- Letter of Admission from Heidelberg University or an enrolment certificate, stating the subject(s) and intended degree and current number of semester
- Current health insurance certificate
